

Red Ribbon Week Activities: October 23, 2017 – October 27, 2017

Every October, we celebrate Red Ribbon Week and discuss the importance of practicing healthy lifestyles and “Just Saying No” to drugs. Listed below are the activities for Red Ribbon Week this year at Nelson! Parents and families, please plan to join us on Friday afternoon for our annual Red Ribbon Parade and Rap Competition at 2:00!

MONDAY: “BE A ‘JEAN’IOUS AND SHADE OUT DRUGS”

All students and staff will rock their jeans and sunglasses.

TUESDAY: “CRAZY HAIR GIVES DRUGS A SCARE”

Today’s the day to let your hair be CRAY! Use your imagination! Crazy hats are OK too!

WEDNESDAY: “DON’T GET MIXED UP IN DRUGS”

Everyone wear mix-matched clothing! The wackier, the better!

THURSDAY: “SOCK IT TO DRUGS”

Students and staff wear their craziest socks.

FRIDAY: “USE YOUR HEAD AND JUST WEAR RED”

Rock your red today and join us for the Red Ribbon Parade and Rap Competition!
